November: St. Barths

Every November, Saint Barth stakes center stage with the Taste of St Barth Gourmet Festival that has spotlighted celebrated chefs like Jean George Vongerichten, who work together with the executive chefs at some of the island's best restaurants to create the exceptional meals. Behold: a lover's paradise on a private 16-acre peninsula between Marigot Bay and Grand Cul de Sac, the Le Guanahani resort offers newlyweds two pristine white sand beaches, a magnificent spa by Clarins, and plenty of activities to keep your adrenaline pumping, like Zumba and aqua fitness. Try the Romance Package for two, which comes with a daily buffet breakfast at Indigo, a romantic dinner with rosé champagne, a picnic, sunset cruise, car rental, a spa treatment per person per stay, and round-trip airport transfers. You might just never want to go back home.
